Aimee Jay stormed into the live entertainment scene back in 2011. After touring internationally for the world renowned record label, Hed Kandi, her career quickly spiralled both in the UK and over seas. Aimee Jay's work has lead her to feature at events in destinations all over the world, favourites of which include Hong Kong, India, Mauritius and Taiwan to name just a few. As a popular choice for VIP and celebrity parties, Aimee Jay has been fortunate enough to perform at many highly exclusive events. From performing to Prince William, supporting Neo, sharing a stage with Brian Ferry, and even entertaining the world's leaders at The World Economic Forum, Aimee has many exciting career highlights and her credentials continue to grow.

It was after touring with a ska band that Aimee knew she belonged With her interactive, high energy approach, Aimee Jay is in high demand for her performances alongside DJs, however she can also be found performing her jazz or chillout sets in many bars and restaurants. Fully self sufficient with her own sound equipment, Aimee can provide music for your wedding ceremony, trendy background music for a drinks reception or an interactive live element at your party alongside your DJ - some even opt for all 3!
